ROSARY CATHEDRAL

Toledo, Ohio

Built of colorful Massachusetts granite, the architectural style of Toledo's Cathedral is Spanish Plateresque, a blend of the Renaissance and Gothic. Encircling the structure, high on the exterior walls, are fifty bas-relief panels recording the history of the Church through ancient, medieval and modern times. The frescoed expanses of the interior tell the story of salvation from the time of the world's creation.

Buckeye News Co., Toledo, Ohio

Plastichrome by COLOURPICTURE
BOSTON MASS 02 30

P68139
MADE IN U.S.A.

POST CARD